BOTH SIDES HAVE LOSSES

Navy Battles Raging in Solomons

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—

The United States Navy reported today that a series of naval engagements was in progress in the Solomon Islands area and that both the American and Japanese navies have suffered losses.

The actions began on the night of Nov. 12-13 (Solomon time). A communique said no details would be reported while the battle continued.

The communique pointedly used

the term "a series of naval engagements."

From this it appeared that no outstanding battle had so far developed in the fighting, but that rather a number of scattered encounters had occurred between American and Japanese forces which have been trying for months now to win domination of the waters around the strategic Solomon Islands.

(Without confirmation elsewhere, Imperial Japanese headquarters in Tokyo announced today that two Japanese destroyers had been sunk and a battleship damaged in a fierce, still-continuing battle of Guadalcanal Island in which it said Allied losses were six cruisers and a destroyer sunk and two cruisers and three destroyers heavily damaged.)

Preliminary to the general renewal of naval warfare between the surface forces of the belligerents in the Solomon Islands, as reported by the news yesterday, of enemy positions on Guadalcanal Island last Thursday.

BRITISH TAKE GAZALA

8th Army Advances R.A.F. Raids Genoa

By LEO KAY

CAIRO, Nov. 14.—(BUP)—

Britain's Eighth Army, pursuing the ragged remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's once proud Afrika Korps across Libya, took Gazala, 38 miles beyond Tobruk, yesterday. British command reported today.

Following Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's assertion, to chase the Axis "right out of North Africa," the British land army drove the Germans and Italians mercilessly while Allied planes, ranging far ahead, tightened the Anglo-American net around enemy troops in French Tunisia.

The communique said Allied long range fighters attacked the airfield at Tunis in a heavy raid Thursday night, destroying gasoline dumps, workshops and airplanes there. Axis infiltration troops had been occupying the position of the airfield, one of the first strategic objectives of the Allied Tunisian campaign.

ATTACKED BY PLANES

As the tired and bedraggled enemy columns fled westward from Tobruk, where the British took some prisoners yesterday in occupying the scene of their epic stand, Allied bombers and fighters continued to attack them.

The nearest haven for Rommel's remnants was nearly 300 miles away at El Agheila, where some observers believed the Germans' tired "desert fox" might attempt a stand behind the natural defenses. It was believed in other quarters, however, that he might use for Tunisia, some 700 miles west of his present position at Gazala to join Axis forces there.

Allied air forces now were operating in increasing strength from Libyan bases captured from the enemy.

"The scale of operations increased," the communique said, "as our squadrons moved their bases farther into Cyrenaica."

Despite the wide scope of Allied operations over the Libyan desert, and into Tunisia during the last two days, the communique said, only three planes were lost.

FLT.-LT. FUMERTON Ranks With 'Tops' In Night Fighters

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(CP)—Flt. Lt. C. Fumerton, Royal Canadian Air Corps, ranks as one of the leading night fighters in the R.A.F. His operations at night over Malta have been credited with destroying seven enemy planes and the total score is seven official and 12 unofficial.

In a story Friday night the Canadian Press mentioned referred to Fumerton as "The Late" R. C. Fumerton. He is still on operations.

Four Fliers Die

HALIFAX, Nov. 14.—(CP)—Four men aboard an R.A.F. aircraft were yesterday killed near the coast when it crashed six miles from the airport at Drabesh, N.S. The eastern air command here announced last night.

Discrimination By Employers To Bring Action

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—(CP)—

National selective service officers warned Canadian employers that discrimination against workers for reasons of race, color or creed may result in all their labor supplies being cut off.

In a statement, selective service officers called for attention to sections of previous instructions on this problem, and supplementing these instructions.

War contractors, for security reasons, are prohibited from employing certain classes of aliens and the contractors are instructed to learn from security officials of these contractors the exact regulations applying to their plants and to comply with them.

Kamloops Dagger Is Being Sent to Moose Squadron

KAMLOOPS, B.C., Nov. 14.—(CP)—The Communist dagger to be forwarded by the Kamloops No. 10 of the British Columbia campaign division will be sent to the Moose Squadron of the R.A.F. in Britain, made famous by Wing Commander John (Moose) Fulton of Kamloops, recently listed as missing.

Nazis Seeking Force of New Japanese Help Against Allies Are Lessening

By ROBERT BUNNELLE

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—

The Axis outlook darkened in Africa today, its European chiefs were disclosed to have called for an import as yet undisclosed.

The Soviet news communique suggested that the force of the new German offensive, opened in sub-freezing weather, might have lessened.

It did not speak of "fierce fighting" as communiques for several days have, and specifically mentioned only repeated attacks by two regiments (6,000 Germans) at a factory section in the northern part of Stalingrad.

The two regiments attacks were all repulsed.

FRIDAY'S LOSSES

Total German losses in Stalingrad yesterday were 900 men, eight tanks and eight guns, the noon communique said. German planes have thrown 20,000 to 45,000 men and hundreds of tanks and planes against the factory section, and suffered more than 4,000 men killed in one day.

Northwest of Stalingrad, the Russians killed several hundred more Axis troops.

The Red Army continued its advance southeast of Nakhik, and on the other Caucasus front, north-east of Tiflis, naval base, routed a company of Germans and advanced.

Mine Detector Plays Big Part In Egypt Drive

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(CP)—

The importance of the mine detector in the Egyptian campaign that the Nazi fustler had urged Tokyo to ease his position by attacking Madagascar—but these reports said the Japanese had refused the ground that they did not have the naval and shipping strength available for such an undertaking.

The night raid followed wide-scale operations in which British fighter planes attacked convoys and railway locomotives in offensive patrol over Holland and Britain.

6 Bodies Found In Shipyard Fire

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 14.—(AP)—Shipyard workers recovered six bodies from a dormitory at the Henry J. Kaiser shipbuilding plant, Corner H. B. Duffield, said other bodies might yet be found, but he would have to wait until the wreckage could be before continuing the search.

The six bodies were injured in the blaze, which swept through the two-story wooden structure with explosive speed. Only three were severely burned, however, and none was identified as that of a woman.

French Garrisons Battling Germans At Tunis, Bizerte

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(CP)—The Algiers radio said today Tunis had two air raid alerts between 1 a.m. and 6:40 a.m., when an airdrome near the city was attacked.

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(BUP)—Great fleets of Allied planes struck at Axis forces in Tunisia and their invasion base in Italy from all directions today in a vast British and American air war believed crossing the frontier from Algeria.

British press reports said the great Allied army, perhaps numbering upwards of 200,000 men with armored divisions and a great umbrella of planes, had poured over the border at dawn. Though they were officially reported only 50 miles from the border yesterday, an Allied spokesman here refused to confirm that they already were in Tunisia.

Aiding doughty French garrisons at Tunis and the important naval base at Bizerte believed to have been holding out against Axis invaders for almost a week, British planes based on Britain, the island fortress of Malta and possibly Italian Libya, and American planes from French North Africa, blasted German and Italian troops in Tunisia and Genoa, the Italian port which is the source of their supplies and reinforcements.

Paratroops May Trap Rommel

As the British Eighth Army, still in untiring pursuit of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's beaten Afrika Korps, reached Gazala, in Libya, only 700 miles east of Tunisia, there was a chance that British and American parachute troops had been dropped from planes ranging ahead of the Allied army closing in from the west.

As the Axis position in both Libya and Tunisia grew increasingly more desperate, there was a new suggestion in an official communique that Adolf Hitler was evacuating his men by air rather than submit them to a final debacle.

Today's communique of the British Middle Eastern command and Royal Air Force in Cairo said long range fighters attacked 99 Axis planes "flying northward towards Sicily," destroyed seven large ones, badly damaged six. The word "large" suggested that they were troop-carrying planes like the six loaded with troops which were reported shot down yesterday while flying "northward"—away from Africa.

Planes Blast Air Field at Tunis

The communique also reported a further blasting of the air field at Tunis which German parachutists had captured Thursday night. Gasoline dumps, workshops, and airplanes were destroyed.

The confidence of Allied leaders that the decisive battle for Africa would end quickly in complete victory was reflected in an order of the day of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, whose British Eighth Army, chasing Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's beaten Afrika Korps across Italian Libya, was fast closing the eastern arm of the Allied net around what remains of the Axis army in Africa.

"Our task is not finished yet," he told his victorious troops. "There is some good hunting to be had further west."

Interpreting War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

ANNOUNCED PRESS STAFF WRITER

WITH the fall of Tobruk to the British 8th Army in eastern Libya and indicated Anglo-American advance from the west into Tunisia the original 1,500-mile gap between the jaws of the Allied trap closing on Rommel's shattered and fleeing Axis desert army in Africa has been contracted to 800 miles.

Against that dual threat Rommel's chances of escaping complete annihilation are dwindling every hour. There are strong signs that he has already abandoned hope salvaging what he can from Africa by sea and air evacuation.

Tobruk is of extreme practical importance.

Rickenbacker Is Found Safe In South Pacific

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—

Dwight Capl, Eddie Rickenbacker, 52, has been rescued, in good condition, the United States navy announced today, three weeks after his airplane radioed it was out of gasoline and then vanished in the Pacific.

Rickenbacker, First Great War ace, was picked from a raft bobbing in the sea, by a navy Catalina flying boat along with two of his crew. They were 600 miles north of Hawaii.

Three other army fliers with him on a survey of Pacific war zone air force operations have been located on an island. The rescue of one was announced yesterday and the seventh man of Rickenbacker's crew died in the long wait for rescue.

Ed, Hans C. Adamson and Pie, John F. Bartek were Rickenbacker's two companions at the time of rescue.

ONE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Adamson also was in good condition, but he is expected to recover from the suffering of exposure.

A fourth man on the little raft, who was badly injured, had been sent St. Elizabeth's hospital in Washington, D.C., where he was directed to examine the condition of these men, give them immediate attention as needed and return them to a United States naval base.

They also were located by a Catalina.

SEES COLLAPSE

Premier Stalin Declares Military, Political Position Now in Favor of Allies

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Joseph Stalin declared today that the American and British campaign in Africa has turned the military and political position in Europe radically in favor of the Allies, opening the way for the early collapse of the German and Italian Axis.

The Soviet leader praised British and American leaders as "first-rate organizers" of the African campaign and expressed confidence that it soon would relieve German pressure on the eastern front.

He pledged that the Russian army would carry out its part of the war task with honor.

SECOND LETTER

The statements were made in the second exclusive Anglo-Soviet letter by the Russian leader to this correspondent.

Stalin in the first letter to me on Oct. 3 said a second front was of paramount importance and declared that Allied aid to Russia had been of little effect compared to the Soviet contribution in prosecution of the war and called on the Allies to fulfill their obligations fully and promptly.

I sent a letter to the Kremlin Thursday evening asking the Soviet view of the new situation since the American landings in French North Africa and the British victory in Egypt.

Stalin's reply reflecting the Soviet appreciation of the campaign was handed to me Friday at midnight by Nikolai Puzanov, chief of the press department of the foreign commissariat.

The text of Stalin's letter in its authorized English translation follows:

"Dear Mr. Cassidy:

"I am answering your questions which reached me on Nov. 12th.

"What is the Soviet view of the Allied campaign in Africa?"

"Answer: The Soviet view of this campaign is that it represents an outstanding fact of major importance demonstrating the growing might of the armed forces of the Allies and opening the prospect of the disintegration of the Italo-German coalition in the nearest future."

REFUTES SKEPTICS

"The campaign in Africa refutes once more the skeptics who asserted that Anglo-American leaders were not capable of organizing a serious campaign. There can be no doubt that no one but first-rate organizers could carry out such serious war operations as the successful landings in North Africa across the ocean as the quick occupation of harbors and wide territories from Casablanca to Bengue and as the smashing of Italo-German troops in the western desert being effected with such mastery."

"How effective has this campaign been in relieving pressure on the Soviet Union and what further aid does the Soviet Union want?"

"Answer: It is yet too soon to say to what an extent this campaign has been effective in relieving immediate pressure on the Soviet Union, but it may be confidently said that the effect will not be a small one and that a certain relief in pressure on the Soviet Union will result in the nearest future."

TAKE INITIATIVE

"But that is not the only thing that matters. What matters first of all is that since the campaign in Africa means that the initiative has passed into the hands of our allies, the campaign changes radically the political and war situation in Europe."

CONJECTURE AROUSED

Some conjecture was aroused in foreign circles here by the absence of any message from Mr. Churchill or King George among those received from other United Nations leaders congratulating the Soviet Union Nov. 7 on the 25th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

Stalin's letter gave an effective answer to any speculation over Allied relations with the assurance of close friendly co-operation.

The Russian leader had told his people Nov. 6 that there would be a second front sooner or later, and now has hailed the African campaign as a prerequisite for creation of that front.

List Contents of Prisoners' Parcels

The Canadian Red Cross Society on Saturday listed the following approved for next-of-kin to include in personal parcels sent to prisoners of war:

Chocolate should not be included in parcels sent to North Africa and senders should not substitute one food item for another, that is, they may not include an extra pound of chocolate to replace the nuts.

These restrictions were announced by Robert Muir, secretary and manager of the Edmonton branch of the society.

West Responds With Recruits For R.C.N.V.R.

Response to the call for recruits by the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service (Wrens), has been very good in the four western provinces, Third Officer, G. A. Rich, in charge of recruiting for Alberta, stated Saturday.

Third Officer Rich has just returned from a conference of officers of the Women's Naval Service held in Regina.

"Response has been fairly good in all four western provinces but has been slow to come from British Columbia and Manitoba are really leading the way," she said.

A new thrill for recruits is being provided at the Galt training centre in eastern Canada.

About 40 girls at a time are taken to HMCS. Pathfinder, training vessel on Lake Ontario. They bring their own food with them and cook it in the ship's galley. They are shown the ship from stem to stern and all machinery and armament is explained to them. They are taught how to wear lifeboats and to lay a smoke screen.

"Recruits describe this experience as just too thrilling for words," the officer said.

AT NAVAL BARRACKS

Third Officer Rich, who is on duty at the naval barracks, 102 street, in Ross Plaza, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day, between now and next Wednesday evening for the purpose of interviewing applicants.

If it is not convenient for some applicants to visit the barracks during the hours mentioned, interviews at other hours may be arranged, she said.

There are good opportunities for increasing their service for all young women in the navy. At the present officers and switchboard operators are in demand. Quarters assistants is a highly interesting job and the girls interested in the scientific preparation immediately on the outbreak of hostilities young Neale offered her services and was soon enrolled as an instructor.

When No. 16 R.C.F.S. opened in Edmonton he was placed on the staff as an instructor, on loan from the R.C.A.F.

SOUGHT ACTION

Although a highly competent and valued instructor, Neale never ceased to long for the action of the embattled skies of Europe and finally his fond wish was granted.

He was recruited to active service with the R.C.A.F. He had been overseas just two months when he made his last operational flight.

One of his proudest accomplishments was the fact he had 30 trained pilots who went overseas. The airman was prominent in athletics, having played hockey and baseball, with Moose and C.N.R. teams.

He attended Eastwood and Technical schools.

His wife, Mrs. Daniel Allen, lives at 11426 31 street.

DEFINITE pronouncement as to the local hockey set-up for the coming season is expected early next week and in the meantime there has of course been considerable conjecture particularly with reference to the junior situation.

Yesterday's hint of the possible inclusion of 18-year olds in the military picture has not tended to make the guessing any easier. If the age is dropped however, it just means that the juveniles will be still further drawn upon to fill the breach.

One thing however is clear and that is the forming of a so-called all-star junior aggregation does not appear to offer any reasonable solution of the local difficulty. In fact there is not as much justification for adopting such a course now as there was when conditions were normal and the arena was available.

CLUBS GREAT HELP
THE secret of Edmonton's success as a developing ground for hockey players has never been attributable to all-star teams. The exact opposite has been the reason.

It has been due to the fact different organizations have been operating who were willing to spend the time and if necessary pay the shot and they supplied the opportunity to a greater number of players than would have been the case had there been just one club.

The continuous progress made here has been directly traceable to the three athletic clubs, Canadian, Edmonton and Maple Leaf. And the fact that there have been three such groups interested in boys' work here has meant exactly three times as many enthusiastic players coming along as there would have been with the effort concentrated on a single team.

OUTLOOK FAIRLY GOOD
MAPLE LEAF'S work appears to have been hardest hit by the loss from the standpoint of losses in junior ranks and the jumping of a couple of the best players to Regina hasn't helped any. They

Starlets Beat Gfroats 29-21; Bissells Tie With Y.W. 23-23

Two games were played in the City Girls' Basketball League at the Y.W.C.A. last night. In the opener, Bissell and the Y.W.C.A. battled to a 23-23 tie. In the second half of the double-header, the Starlets defeated Gfroats 29-21.

Bissell started off like sure winners in their encounter with the Y.W. and at the end of the first quarter they had piled up an 11-2 margin.

The Y.W. came storming back in the second frame and took command of play to outscore their opponents 8-3. Play was very even in the third quarter with the Y.W. holding a slight edge and chalked up eight points while holding Bissell tight to seven.

Facing a deficit in the final quarter, the Y.W. stormed the Bissell edge in an effort to close the gap. They tied up the ball game in the last few seconds of play as Bert Brecha scored on a free shot.

Gwen Riddell was chief pointer for the Y.W. with a total of 16, by Young Leed Bissell with eight points.

LINEUPS

SHIRLEY THOMPSON SCORES NINE POINTS
In their 28-21 win over Gfroats, Starlets were away for flying start and in the initial canto they outscored their opposition by a 9-4 edge.

Play in the second session was mostly of the defensive variety and each team was credited with only two points.

Mossbank Airmen Seek Entry Into Pari Mutuel Betting Up Service League Over Four Million This Year

REGINA, Nov. 14.—(CP)—Word was received here Friday from the C.A.C.A. (Canadian Amateur Club) at Mossbank, that the school would seek entry into the Saskatchewan Senior Service Hockey League at the meeting in Saskatoon today.

It is understood the Airmen will make Moose Jaw, 30 miles north of Mossbank, their home base. In the event the Air Force team, which would number about 15, is a five-team circuit with R.C.A.F. clubs from Mossbank, Saskatoon and Yorkton. The Regina Army squad and Flin Flon Bombers.

Earlier this week Prime Minister Albert representatives announced the R.C.A.F. and Army teams from that city would not enter the league.

Official information concerning the Mossbank entry was lacking but it was learned here P.O. Karl Knapp would attend today's meeting to ask for the Airmen's entry in the schedule.

S.S. Athletics Guests at Banquet
Members of the South Side Athletics team at the senior girls' school ball league were guests of their Association at a banquet at the Coronado on Friday night.

During the evening Coach Paul Martell announced that the club would play in the league again next season.

Included in the list of guests were H. D. Aulay, president, Edmonton District Softball Association, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Skitch, Paul Martell, Harold Orling, Van Lawson, Margaret Gray, Lorraine Lewis, Marie Duff, Margaret, Betty Smith, Peggy Edy, Madeline Hain, Evelyn McMenick, Maude Nudman, Teddie Howie, Thora Stewart, Joan Craig, O'Donnell and Stella Noel.

O.R.F.U. Will "Hold Meetings"
TORONTO, Nov. 14.—(CP)—Society Harold Bailey said Friday the Ontario Rugby Football Union is "going to hold meetings but I can't say why or when" when he was asked if the O.R.F.U. would be holding a meeting to speed up its schedule.

The suggestion of speeding up the O.R.F.U. schedule came last night from Arthur Chipman of the Winnipeg Football Club.

East-West Final
O.R.F.U. Secretary Hints That Solution Forthcoming

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—(CP)—Harold Bailey, secretary of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, said last night "I think we'll have something happy to report" this week-end on the possibility of an east-west football final.

Bailey said the league has made some progress in seeking a solution to the present tangled circumstances surrounding the all-Canada classic but declined to say what form the progress had taken.

All I can say is that we are working on something, and that something, at this time, looks promising," he said.

Asked whether the O.R.F.U. would be able to give the western Canada representatives assurance a national final can be played, Bailey said:

"I couldn't say that but I may be able to say something about the O.R.F.U. games. We're getting to get for discussion and I think we'll have something happy to report."

Bailey's statement cast the first encouraging light on the national final prospects since an R.C.A.F. referee has been asked to referee O.R.F.U. games. We're getting to get for discussion and I think we'll have something happy to report."

The teams are Navy from Toronto's H.M.C.S. Navy Naval Training Headquarters, and Toronto Balmy Beach. The sailors hold a one-point lead over the Beavers for the cover of playoff spot and victory would not the Tars into the final final.

Today's first game in Toronto will bring together the H.M.C.S. and the down-trodden 821. The game is being played at Hamilton for the sailors' other contest.

Jack still drove in, but Alie's margin in this heat came through the fact that the little Negro missed about two thirds of the blows he aimed.

Midway of the round, Jack worked Stolz into a corner and fired the short right that drew blood from Alie's eye, and from there to the finish he worked on that damage, gradually making it worse until the proceeding were halted.

What made the fight all the more astonishing was that, only six months ago Stolz had all but taken Alie's eye, and from there to the finish he worked on that damage, gradually making it worse until the proceeding were halted.

A sharp overhand right opened the cut in the fourth round, and Jack—whose real name is Walker—reopened it and lengthened it in each round until the end of the seventh, and it was apparent that Stolz was having difficulty seeing through the eye.

So Referee Frank Patten summoned Dr. William Walker, State Athletic Commission physician, late Stolz corner and after an examination Dr. Walker would not permit the cur-haired New York style to continue.

For the seven completed rounds, the Associated Press score card gave Jack, who hails from Augusta, Ga., four wins of Springfield and three rounds; Stolz, three and called one even.

Not only was the victory for the one-time shoe-horn club at the Augusta National Golf Club a stunning surprise to the fistic experts who had made Stolz the favorite, but it threw the brand new lightweight scramble into a state of confusion.

For with the retirement of Champion Sammy Angstadt Friday, the crown had appeared to lie between Stolz and Tippy Larkin of Garfield, N.J., with Henry Armstrong an outside possibility.

But Jack now is definitely in the picture.

Jack had just one speed and one gear. That was forward. No matter how many left hooks he took or how many zipping right crosses Stolz landed on his chin, the little Negro just pointed himself in Alie's direction and let fly.

But as was expected, Stolz knew too many of the answers and, while Jack tossed many punches in the seven completed rounds of the scheduled 10-rounder, he must have missed more than half of them.

Stolz even let Alie concentrate through the early rounds on Jack's mid-section, apparently in the belief that such tactics would tire the Georgian. Through the first three hearts, Stolz fired smashing blows to the body as Jack rushed him across the ring in the second, Jack found the range and did good punching job on Stolz in between misses.

Victory Loan Returns Here

Top $7,000,000

With more returns yet to be recorded the total in Edmonton's Victory Loan drive exceeded the $7,000,000 mark Saturday.

Late returns during the week boosted total subscriptions in the city to $2,826, and sales to $7,000,000, as compared with 17,459 purchases for $6,489,359 during the second loan drive.

Most substantial gain was recorded in the payroll section where 11,253 employees in 543 firms bought $680,000 worth of bonds. During the second loan drive 9,413 employees bought $609,500 worth.

Campaign officials expressed gratification at the results obtained from the various centres of the armed forces where purchases averaged nearly $100 per person.

Fifty-nine members in training at H.M.C. "Nurses" R.C.N.V. purchased $1,000 worth of bonds.

Members of the Edmonton Garrison produced the best average with 192 sales in 158-900 worth of bonds.

The different units of the R.C.A.F. made the following purchases: No. 4 Initial Training School, 329 bonds for $26,100; No. 3 Manning School, 153 for $12,240; No. 2 Air Observer School, 153 for $12,240; No. 16 Aircraft Inspectors Department, 46 for $3,680; and No. 3 Recruiting Centre R.C.A.F., 49 for $4,150.

The Visual Load
By J. E. Thomas, Optometrist.

Approximately eight-five per cent today, in many instances an office of all we learn comes to us through the medium of vision, and in that modern day, we are dependent upon the reading of books for the greater part of our specific information. The importance of possessing efficiently functioning eyes is increasing amazingly.

In business offices the introduction of typewriters, dictaphones, posting machines, has added much to speed and facility in handling correspondence. This gain has increased the burden on the eyes of today.

For your appointment call, write or phone 2147, J. E. Thomas, Optometrist, with Jackson Bros., Jewelers, Ltd., 9903 Jasper Ave., Edmonton, Alta.

Various Resolutions Are Endorsed During Three-Day Convention

Copper, Nickel Coins Scarce: Help is Sought
Shortage of copper and nickel coins was reported by city banks Saturday, and at the same time, stores reported scarcity of silver coins.

The Bank of Canada has failed to ease the situation. One bank manager, asked why the copper coin shortage was brought to public attention, with the plea that children have been using them in the proceeds and obtain dollar bills and that organizations having collection boxes out, collect and empty same and turn in the coins.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION
Is the present trend to stack up amateur hockey teams with superlatives for purposes of winning the national championship, detrimental to the sport?

JOHN POWERS' spokesman:
An outstanding team creates favorable interest in the locality where it operates and possibly may make a stir throughout the nation during its play-off, but its success is not acclimated with the same enthusiasm as are successes of "natural" teams.

WILFRED HANLEY, bus operator:
A "spalish-in-the-face" from a bus by the result, it has been proven time and again that individual stars cannot stack up against a well balanced team of players of moderate ability.

JAMES SPENCER, clerk:
The more team of that nature there is throughout the nation, the less interest there is in hockey. Amateurism falls as super-teams hold sway.

Air Cadets Will Parade Monday
Edmonton Squadrons 1 and 2 of the Air Cadets of Canada and the band will parade at 10:15 hours and the same squadrons with the band will parade at the drill hall on Wednesday evening at the same time.

GENERAL TEST
Among those of general interest that were passed were: giving the executive power to carry on an emergency situation to not apply to them; M. M. Maclean, director of the National Selective Service Officials here, it was learned that the dominion act does not apply to teachers and that they are excluded from the order-in-council relating to selective service as long as they stay in their profession. They cannot change to other occupations while on strike, he stated.

Mrs. A. H. Rogers Resigns Post With Trustees

After serving as secretary-treasurer of the Alberta School Trustees' Association for 23 years, Mrs. A. H. Rogers, Edmonton, resigned Friday. Her resignation was handed to the A.S.T.A. executive Friday, after which a resolution expressing appreciation of her services was passed unanimously.

For the last few years Mrs. Rogers also served as editor of the association's official monthly magazine, The Alberta School Trustee. Mrs. Rogers gave failing health as her reason for resigning. She stated that with the trustee association program in the process of expansion to much greater proportions she felt that the duties of secretary-treasurer will mount in proportion.

There will be plenty to do as a fulltime job for a much younger person, preferably a man, she stated.

REGRET EXPRESSED

The convention voiced regret over her resignation and voiced appreciation of her services by unanimously passing a resolution.

"Whereas Mrs. A. H. Rogers, the general secretary of the Alberta School Trustees' Association, has decided to resign from her present position. And whereas she has given to this association many years of valuable service.

"Be it resolved that this convention extend a very hearty vote of thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Rogers for her past services and express the hope that she may enjoy her well-earned retirement for many years."

Mrs. Rogers became secretary of the association in 1919 and has held that position ever since.
